

WHY HIRE A NASMM COMPANY?

NASMM COMPANIES

VS

OTHERS

All NASMM companies are required to carry general business liability insurance.

Insurance for Move Management companies is difficult to acquire, and is expensive. Most companies outside of NASMM do not have insurance for this reason.

All NASMM companies are required to take and pass courses in Ethics, Safety, Liability & Risk, and Understanding the Moving Industry.

Companies outside of NASMM do not have exposure to best practices in client services and Move Management operations.

All NASMM companies sign and are required to abide by NASMM's strict Code of Ethics.

Companies outside of NASMM are not guided by any code of professional conduct.

NASMM companies are supported by the NASMM Ethics Compliance Commission, which guides our members' conduct and reviews any complaint alleged against a NASMM member.

Companies outside of NASMM do not provide you with protection from an outside, impartial oversight body. If you have a problem, who will you call?

NASMM members have the option to pursue A+ Accreditation and Certification through the SMM~C Certification - both focus on best practices in Move Management.

Companies outside of NASMM do not have the exposure to best practices in client services and Move Management operations.

NASMM members comprise a global community of over 1000 Senior & Specialty Move Management Companies - committed to serving the unique needs of their clients.

The term Senior Move Manager® is a Registered Trademark of NASMM.

Only NASMM member companies can call themselves Senior Move Managers.
